

Year 11 Autumn Term - An Inspector Calls by JB Priestley
Topics covered: An Inspector Calls	How it links to what has been studied before: Students have previously studied this text, these lessons will act as a revision opportunity and the cementing of key concepts and ideas.	How it links to what will be studied: Learning objectives are set according to the AOs within the AQA GCSE specification. The skills developed within these lessons will be transferable in future Learning Support and English lessons.
Key words: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Socialism</li> <li>• Capitalism</li> <li>• Responsibility</li> <li>• Community</li> <li>• Reputation</li> <li>• Class</li> <li>• Change</li> <li>• Judgement</li> </ul>	Key skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reading comprehension</li> <li>• Character analysis</li> <li>• Plot structure</li> <li>• PEE paragraphs</li> <li>• Inference</li> <li>• Writing creatively</li> <li>• Comparing texts</li> <li>• Understanding context</li> <li>• Identifying themes</li> <li>• Presenting</li> <li>• Listening</li> <li>• Literary devices</li> </ul>
Assessment focus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Independent research</li> <li>• Character profiles</li> <li>• Writing creatively</li> <li>• Writing poetry</li> <li>• Planning responses</li> <li>• Class presentations</li> <li>• Reviews</li> <li>• Exam style questions</li> <li>• Question and answer sessions</li> </ul>	Revision tips <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Repetition and overlearning</li> <li>• Reading practice with comprehension questions</li> <li>• Multi Sensory and visual aids</li> <li>• Modelling</li> <li>• Quizzes</li> <li>• Creating revision aids such as posters and cue cards</li> </ul>
Why we study it: An Inspector calls is an English Literature text studied at GCSE. It draws on topics that are as relevant today as they were historically. Students have the opportunity to consider the impact of community and a capitalist society upon individuals. Students can consider the idea of change.

