- Students caught in contravention of the guidance, without good reason, will be either sent home to change, placed in internal exclusion or a request will be made to parents to bring appropriate uniform into school.
- If a student contravenes the uniform policy, they will be isolated with their progress leader at break and lunchtime until the uniform is correct.
- If a student continues to refuse to cooperate, then sanctions may be applied which include internal exclusions, suspensions and may lead to a permanent exclusion.
- If individual students have a religious belief that conflicts with our policy we will endeavour to accommodate those beliefs. Please contact the school for more information.
